License No. 068.0000653

Docket No. 2026-49

STIPULATION AND CONSENT ORDER

STIPULATION

NOW COMES the State of Vermont, by and through Prosecuting Attorney Zoe Newman, and Respondent Anthony Stevens, by and through his counsel Kevin Lumpkin, Esq., who hereby stipulate and agree as follows:

Board Authority

1. The Vermont State Board of Allied Mental Health Practitioners (Board) has authority to issue warnings or reprimands; suspend, revoke, limit, or condition current licenses; or prevent the renewal of lapsed licenses if, after disciplinary hearing, the Board finds that the Respondent has engaged in unprofessional conduct. 3 V.S.A. §129(a); 3 V.S.A. §129a; 3 V.S.A. §814; 26 V.S.A. Chapter 78; the Administrative Rules of the Board of Allied Mental Health Practitioners; and the Rules of the Office of Professional Regulation (OPR).

Alleged Facts

2. Anthony Stevens (Respondent) of Jericho, Vermont, is licensed by the State of Vermont as a Licensed Clinical Mental Health Counselor (LCMHC) under license number 068.0000653. This license was first issued on July 15, 2004, and expires on January 31, 2027.
3. At all times relevant, Respondent worked as the Crisis Team Leader and as a LCMHC for an agency providing mental health counseling and crisis services (Agency), in Franklin County, Vermont.
4. As Crisis Team Leader, Respondent provided supervision for clinicians and crisis staff.
5. From August 2017 until June 2019, Respondent provided clinical supervision towards LCMHC licensure for a supervisee, herein referred to as H.C., who was, at the time, a Rostered Non-Licensed and Non-Certified Psychotherapist.
6. C.H. stated that, starting early on in their supervisor/supervisee relationship, Respondent began making sexual comments to C.H.

7. In June 2019, during the final week of direct supervision for licensure, C.H. and Respondent both attended a work event.
8. During the event, C.H. found herself alone with Respondent, at which point, Respondent made sexually suggestive comments to C.H., touched C.H.'s breasts, and took her hand and placed it on his genitals.
9. After C.H. received her LCMHC license, Respondent was no longer her direct supervisor but remained in a leadership position above C.H. within the Agency.
10. Sometime after June 2019, Respondent and C.H. entered into a sexual relationship, which took place in person and through text messaging, that continued until after C.H. left the Agency in 2022.
11. According to C.H., between 2019 and 2022, Respondent would often come to her office at the Agency and they would engage in oral sex or intercourse.
12. Between 2019 and 2020, Respondent was also the direct supervisor for a crisis worker, herein referred to as J.C.
13. Between 2019 and 2020, Respondent engaged in a sexual relationship with J.C.
14. According to J.C., on at least one occasion between 2019 and 2020, Respondent, C.H., and J.C. engaged in sexual intercourse while at the Agency.

Violation One: 3 V.S.A. § 129a(b)(2): Failure to practice competently by reason of any cause on a single occasion or on multiple occasions may constitute unprofessional conduct, whether actual injury to a client, patient, or customer has occurred. Failure to practice competently includes: failure to conform to the essential standards of acceptable and prevailing practice.

15. Paragraphs 2 through 14 above are incorporated herein.
16. Under the Vermont Administrative Rules for Allied Mental Health Practitioners, Rule 6.6, failure to comply with either the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC) Code of Ethics or the American Counseling Association's (ACA) Code of Ethics and Standards of Practice may constitute unprofessional conduct.
17. The NBCC's Code of Ethics, Rule 43 states: "Counselors who act as . . . clinical supervisors shall not engage in sexual or romantic intimacy with current and former . . . supervisees for at least five (5) years from the date of the last . . . supervision contact. . . . Prohibited intimate sexual or romantic engagements include in- person contact and electronic interactions"
18. Paragraphs 2 through 14 demonstrate that Respondent failed to conform to the essential standards of acceptable and prevailing practice when Respondent engaged in sexual intimacy with supervisee C.H. by touching her breasts, putting her hand on his crotch and, by making sexual comments towards her, and by engaging in oral sex and intercourse with her and sending her sexually intimate text messages within five years of the end of their supervisor-supervisee relationship and Respondent engaged in sexual intimacy with supervisee J.C. when Respondent had a sexual relationship with J.C.

19. The ACA's Code of Ethics and Standards of Practice, Rule F.3.c. states: "Counseling supervisors do not condone or subject supervisees to sexual harassment."
20. Paragraphs 2 through 14 demonstrate that Respondent failed to conform to the essential standards of acceptable and prevailing practice when Respondent subjected supervisee C.H. to sexual harassment by touching her breasts, putting her hand on his crotch and, by making sexual comments towards her.
21. The act(s), omission(s), and/or circumstance(s) described above constitute grounds for discipline because Respondent committed unprofessional conduct in violation of 3 V.S.A. §129a(a)(15).

Violation Two: 3 V.S.A. §129a(a)(28) Engaging in conduct of a character likely to deceive, defraud, or harm the public.

22. Paragraphs 2 through 14 above are incorporated herein.
23. Paragraphs 2 through 14 demonstrate that Respondent engaged in conduct likely to harm the public when Respondent engaged in sexual intimacy with supervisee C.H. by touching her breasts, putting her hand on his crotch and, by making sexual comments towards her, and by engaging in oral sex and intercourse with her and sending her sexually intimate text messages within five years of the end of their supervisor-supervisee relationship and Respondent engaged in sexual intimacy with supervisee J.C. when Respondent had a sexual relationship with J.C.
24. The act(s), omission(s), and/or circumstance(s) described above constitute grounds for discipline because Respondent committed unprofessional conduct in violation of 3 V.S.A. §129a(a)(28).

Violation Three: 3 V.S.A. §129a(a)(28) Engaging in conduct of a character likely to deceive, defraud, or harm the public.

25. Paragraphs 2 through 14 above are incorporated herein.
26. Paragraphs 2 through 14 demonstrate that Respondent failed to exercise independent professional judgement necessary to avoid actions repugnant to the obligations of the profession in the performance of licensed activities when Respondent engaged in sexual intimacy with supervisee C.H. by touching her breasts, putting her hand on his crotch and, by making sexual comments towards her, and by engaging in oral sex and intercourse with her and sending her sexually intimate text messages within five years of the end of their supervisor-supervisee relationship and Respondent engaged in sexual intimacy with supervisee J.C. when Respondent had a sexual relationship with J.C.

27. The act(s), omission(s), and/or circumstance(s) described above constitute grounds for discipline because Respondent committed unprofessional conduct in violation of 3 V.S.A. §129a(a)(15).

Understandings

28. This Stipulation is neither an admission of liability by Respondent nor a concession by the State of Vermont that its charges are not well-founded. To avoid delay, uncertainty, inconvenience, and the expense of protracted litigation, the Parties enter this full and final Stipulation pursuant to these Understandings and the Order below. Respondent does not dispute that the State may be able to prove these charges by a preponderance of the evidence if this matter proceeds to a merits hearing. Respondent agrees the Order below is necessary to protect the public.
29. Respondent understands that the Board must review and accept the terms of the Consent Order. If the Board rejects any portion, the entire Stipulation and Consent Order shall be null and void.
30. Respondent specifically waives any claim that any disclosures made to the Board during review of this agreement have prejudiced Respondent's right to a fair and impartial hearing if this agreement is not accepted and proceeds to a hearing on the merits before the same Board.
31. Respondent has read and reviewed this entire document and agrees it contains the entire agreement between the parties.
32. Respondent is not under the influence of any drugs or alcohol at the time of signing this Stipulation and Consent Order.
33. Respondent voluntarily enters into this agreement after the opportunity to consult with legal counsel and is not being coerced by anyone into signing this Stipulation and Consent Order.
34. Respondent voluntarily waives the right to a contested hearing before the Board and waives any right to appeal from this Stipulation and Consent Order.
35. Respondent understands that he is responsible for all compliance costs associated with this Stipulation and Consent Order.
36. Respondent agrees the Board may enter the Order set forth below.

Acceptance of Voluntary Surrender and Order

Based on the Stipulation above, it is ORDERED AND ADJUDGED as follows:

- A. The Board of Allied Mental Health Practitioners hereby ACCEPTS Respondent's VOLUNTARY SURRENDER of his LCMHC license.
- B. Any future application for licensure shall be subject to the licensing requirements of that particular profession. If a future application for licensure in the State of Vermont is approved, that license shall be CONDITIONED pursuant to whatever terms are found to be reasonable at the time of Respondent's application for licensure, taking into account the facts above.

- C. This Stipulated Voluntary Surrender of License and Order is a matter of public record and may be reported to other licensing authorities as provided in 3 V.S.A. §129(a).
- D. This Stipulated Voluntary Surrender of License and Order applies to all licenses this Board issues to Respondent, including future licenses, as provided in 3 V.S.A. § 129(l).
- E. This Stipulated Voluntary Surrender of License and Order will remain part of Respondent's licensing file and may be used for purposes of determining sanctions in any future disciplinary matter.
- F. Pursuant to 3 V.S.A. § 125(b)(11), a Disciplinary Action Surcharge in the amount of two-hundred and fifty dollars ($250.00) is assessed against Respondent. Respondent shall remit payment within six (6) months of the date of entry of this Order. Payment of the surcharge may be on a payment plan if needed. Failure to remit payment may result in the non-renewal of Respondent's license/registration.
