
BEFORE THE IOWA BOARD OF BEHAVIORAL SCIENCE

IN THE MATTER OF

STATEMENT OF
CHARGES AGAINST
LISA VOGEL, MHC, RESPONDENT
BS 09-003

TERMINATION ORDER

1. On March 26, 2010, a Notice of Hearing, Settlement Agreement, and Final Order was filed against Respondent charging her with failure to notify the board of a criminal conviction within 30 days of the action and fraud in procuring a license by making a false representation of material fact when making application for license in this state.

2. At the time the Final Order was issued the Respondent held a probationary license in Nebraska and was required to abide by all conditions set forth by the State of Nebraska during her probationary period in Iowa.

3. On November 1, 2012, the Board considered a letter from Respondent requesting that she be released from probation since she had successfully completed all of the terms of the initial order except for the probationary period and had been released from probation in Nebraska.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

Effective November 1, 2012, the probation placed upon the Respondent's license to practice mental health counseling in the State of Iowa was terminated and Respondent's Iowa mental health counselor license was returned to its full privileges free and clear of all restrictions.

Approved by the Board this 1st day of November, 2012.
