

Preliminary Notice of Intent to Deny Licensure

Ann Byrne-Boes

The Iowa Board of Social Work Examiners has received and reviewed your application for licensure at the independent level. Your application was denied on the following basis:

- The Board's rule require a minimum of two years, maximum of six years of supervised practice. You have exceeded the maximum time period outlined by the Board to receive your supervision [645 IAC 280.6(1) "b"].

You may appeal this decision and request a hearing on the issues related to the licensure denial by serving a notice of appeal and request for a hearing upon the board not more than 30 days following the date of mailing of this notice. Such appeal shall be made by certified mail, return receipt requested. See IAC 645—280.13(1). The request for hearing shall specifically describe the facts to be contested and determined at the hearing. The hearing shall be held pursuant to the process outlined in IAC 645—Chapter 11 "Contested Cases."

If an appeal is not filed within this time period, this preliminary notice of intent to deny licensure will become final and will be a matter of public record.

This preliminary notice of intent to deny licensure is approved by the board on August 16, 2007.
