COMES NOW the Iowa Board of Behavioral Science Examiners, and in support of the Notice of Hearing filed in this case on this 10th day of February, 2006, sets forth the following facts which support the allegations contained in the Notice of Hearing.

1. Respondent held a "retreat" on her private property in Missouri which was attended by several patients.
2. During the course of the retreat, Respondent and several patients engaged in nude swimming.
3. Nude pictures were taken of Respondent's patients during this event. The pictures were downloaded on Respondent's computer and others in Respondent's family had access to the computer.
4. Respondent failed to clarify whether the purpose of the retreat was a therapeutic event or a personal experience and failed to take appropriate safeguards to protect client safety, well-being, and confidentiality.

This statement of matters asserted is approved by the Board on February 10, 2006.
