Re: Case # 2004-000137

Dear Mr. String:

The Colorado Board of Licensed Professional Counselor Examiners reviewed the above referenced complaint. After careful consideration of all the evidence before the Board, the Board determined that you provided professional counseling services to client TR and that you engaged in a social relationship with TR and thereby failed to maintain appropriate therapeutic boundaries as required by C.R.S. §§ 12-43-222(1)(g) and (i). The failure to maintain appropriate therapeutic boundaries is a prohibited activity under the Colorado Mental Health Statute and violates C.R.S. §§ 12-43-222(1)(g) and (i).

The Board found that the failure to maintain appropriate therapeutic boundaries is a violation of the Colorado Mental Health Statute. The Board hereby admonishes you pursuant to C.R.S. §12-43-224(3)(d) for the violation of C.R.S. §§12-43-222(1)(g) and (i).

This admonishment shall be part of the permanent records of the Board. This is a disciplinary action that is available to the public. Because the terms of this Letter of Admonition were stipulated, you agree to waive your right to contest this admonishment as provided in C.R.S. §12-43-224(3)(d).

Sincerely,

FOR THE STATE BOARD OF LICENSED PROFESSIONAL COUNSELOR EXAMINERS
