

BEFORE THE STATE BOARD OF LICENSED PROFESSIONAL COUNSELOR EXAMINERS
STATE OF COLORADO

Court Case No. PCE 2009-0001

FINAL AGENCY ORDER

IN THE MATTER OF THE LICENSE TO PRACTICE PROFESSIONAL COUNSELING IN THE STATE OF COLORADO OF VERNILLYN MARTZ,
Respondent.

An Initial Decision in the above captioned matter was issued by Administrative Law Judge Robert N. Spencer ("Initial Decision") on the July 15, 2009. On July 24, 2009, the Board served the Initial Decision by mail to all parties, informing them that the Initial Decision could be appealed by filing written exceptions within 30 days after service of the Initial Decision.

As of August 26, 2009, no exceptions to the Initial Decision have been filed. The deadline for filing any exceptions to the Initial Decision has passed. In accordance with C.R.S. § 24-4-105(14) (a)(III), in the absence of an exception having been filed, the initial decision shall become the decision of the agency.

Therefore, the Initial Decision in this matter, in its entirety including all Findings of Fact, Order and Sanction, is the Final Agency Order.

The license to practice professional counseling of Vernillyn Martz, LPC#1221 is suspended until such time as Ms. Martz complies with the Board's January 12, 2009 Order for a mental evaluation, and thereafter until the Board has had a reasonable opportunity to review the results of the evaluation and take such additional action as it deems appropriate.

The Board authorized the undersigned representative to sign this Final Agency Order on its behalf.

DATED this 26th day of August, 2009.
