DEFAULT JUDGMENT ORDER FOR PERMANENT INJUNCTION

This matter comes before the Court on the Motion for Default Judgment filed by the Plaintiffs. Based on that Motion, the supporting Affidavit, the Complaint and the return of service, the Court makes the following findings and conclusions:

1. Defendant was served with the Summons and Complaint on March 23, 2004, and is in default for failing to answer or respond.

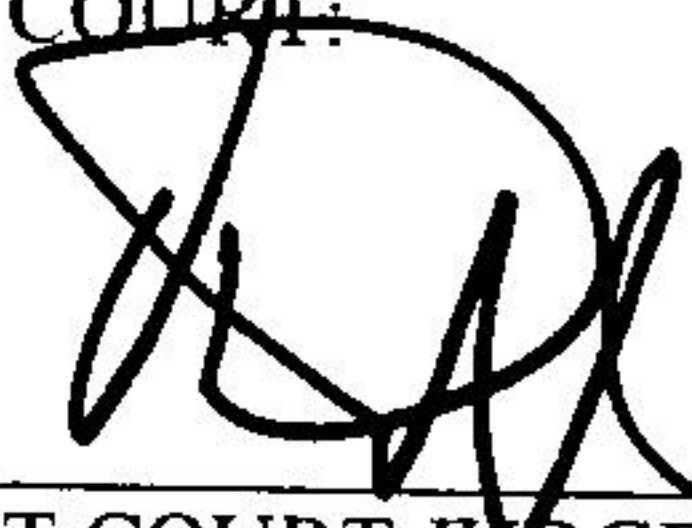

2. Venue has been considered and is proper in the 10th Judicial District.
3. Defendant is not an infant, an incompetent person, an officer or agency of the State of Colorado or in the military service.
4. Defendant, Thomas R. Monroe has engaged in acts prohibited by the provisions of § 12-43-601(5) and § 24-34-102(14)(g), C.R.S. (2003), holding himself out and practicing as a licensed professional counselor and as an addiction counselor.

THEREFORE IT IS ORDERED:

1. That pursuant to § 12-43-227, C.R.S. (2003), defendant, Thomas R. Monroe, be and is hereby perpetually enjoined from holding himself out or practicing as a licensed professional counselor or as an addiction counselor in the State of Colorado.
2. That defendant, Thomas R. Monroe, shall remove the designations "LPC," "CAC," or any other designation tending to indicate that he is licensed in good standing as a licensed professional counselor or as an addiction counselor, from any advertising or other documentation that defendant uses with his name, within 30 days of the date of this order.

DATED this 30th day of April, 2004.

BY THE COURT:

DISTRICT COURT JUDGE
