Re: Case No. 2016-1861, (LPC)

Letter of Admonition

Dear Mr. Morris:

On July 22, 2016, the State Board of Licensed Professional Counselors Examiners (Board) reviewed the available material concerning the above referenced case. After thorough review, the Board found probable cause to believe you violated C.R.S. §12-43-214 (1), §12-43-222 (p) and issues this Letter of Admonition in accordance with C.R.S. §12-43-224(3)(d).

Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, every licensee, registrant, or certificate holder shall provide the following information in writing to each client during the initial client contact. An explanation of the levels of regulation applicable to mental health professionals under this article and the differences between licensure, registration, and certification, including the educational, experience, and training requirements applicable to the particular level of regulation. Licensee failed to comply with the requirements pertaining to mandatory disclosure of this information to clients pursuant to section 12-43-214. Please ensure to provide all of this statutory required information to your clients.

By this letter, the Board takes the formal disciplinary action of admonishing you for the conduct specified above, and warns you that repetition of such practice may lead to imposition of more severe disciplinary action. This letter is an open public record and a reportable action to individuals or entities requesting disciplinary information. The Board strongly encourages you to review and understand the Mental Health Practice Act requirements and obligations for the practice of counseling in Colorado.

In accordance with C.R.S. §12-43-224(3)(d), the Board advises you that you have the right to make a written request that the Board initiate formal disciplinary proceedings in order to adjudicate the conduct or acts upon which this letter is based. You must make your written request within twenty (20) days after receipt of this letter and address your request to Catherine Rodriguez, Program Director, at the address listed below. If you make a timely request, the Board will deem this letter of admonition vacated and may proceed with disciplinary and/or injunctive proceedings in accordance with C.R.S. §12-43-224(3)(d), and applicable rules.
