After thorough review, the Board found that your handling of this matter warranted formal disciplinary action concerning your professional counselor license.

In the opinion of the Board, there are reasonable grounds to believe you failed to meet the generally accepted standards of practice and violated CRS 12-43-222(1)(g). Specifically, the Board determined that:

You involved clients in a business dispute and solicited letters from clients to assist in resolving problems you encountered in your business.

The Board strongly encourages you to review and understand the Mental Health Practice Act requirements and obligations for the practice of Licensed Professional Counselor in Colorado.

By this letter, the Board takes the formal disciplinary action of admonishing you for the conduct specified above.
