RE: Self-report
Board Case #02.038(C)
Letter of Admonition

Dear Ms. Pytte:

At its meeting July 19, 2002, the Colorado Board of Licensed Professional Counselor Examiners (Board) reviewed the available material concerning your self-reported complaint. This is the first step in deciding whether to institute a formal proceeding for discipline.

Upon thorough review and discussion, the Board found that your involvement in this matter falls below the generally accepted standards of practice and warrants formal disciplinary action concerning your professional counselor license and your psychotherapy practice in Colorado. In the opinion of the Board, there is probable cause to believe a violation of C.R.S. 12-43-222 (1)(g) and (i) occurred and directed the issuance of a Letter of Admonition. Specifically, the Board determined:

You allowed a dual relationship to exist with a minor client by allowing the minor client to spend the night at your home.

The Board strongly encourages you to review and understand the Mental Health Practice Act requirements and obligations for the practice of professional counseling/psychotherapy in Colorado. By this letter, the Board takes the formal disciplinary action of admonishing you for the conduct specified above.

In accordance with CRS 12-43-224(3)(d), the Board advises you that you have the right to make a written request that the Board initiate formal disciplinary proceedings in order to adjudicate the conduct or acts upon which this letter is based. You must make your written request within twenty (20) days after receipt of this letter and address your request to Amos D. Martinez, Program Administrator, at the above letterhead address. If you make a timely request, the Board will deem this letter of admonition vacated and may proceed with disciplinary and/or injunctive proceedings in accordance with CRS 12-43-224(3)(d), and applicable rules.

If this letter is not vacated, it will become the final agency action in this matter.

Sincerely,

Thomas D. Graves, Ed.D.
Board Chair
