RE: Complaint filed by John D. Eachon, M.A.
Board Case #02.033(C); Letter of Admonition

Dear Ms. Reeder:

At its meeting on March 15, 2002, the Colorado Board of Licensed Professional Counselor Examiners (Board) reviewed the available material concerning the complaint filed against you by Mr. Eachon. This is the first step in deciding whether to institute a formal proceeding for discipline.

After thorough review and discussion, the Board found reasonable grounds to believe you violated CRS 12-43-222 (g) and issued this Letter of Admonition in accordance with CRS 12-43-224(3)(d). Specifically, the Board determined that:

- You continued to practice and represented yourself to the public as a licensed professional counselor during the period of time when your Colorado professional counselors license was not in effect (lapsed).

The Board strongly encourages you to review and understand the Mental Health Practice Act requirements and obligations for the practice of professional counselors in Colorado.

By this letter, the Board takes the formal disciplinary action of admonishing you for the conduct specified above.

In accordance with CRS 12-43-224(3)(d), the Board advises you that you have the right to make a written request that the board initiate formal disciplinary proceedings in order to adjudicate the conduct or acts upon which this letter is based. You must make your written request within twenty (20) days after receipt of this letter and address your request to Amos D. Martinez, Program Administrator, at the above letterhead address. If you make a timely request, the Board will deem this letter of admonition vacated and may proceed with disciplinary and/or injunctive proceedings in accordance with CRS 12-43-224(3)(d), and applicable rules.

If this letter is not vacated, it will become the final agency action in this matter.

Sincerely,

Thomas D. Graves
