RE: Complaint Filed by [REDACTED]
SGB #98.117(C)
Letter of Admonition

Dear Ms. Rogers:

At its meeting on February 13, 1998, the 11-member Colorado State Grievance Board (Board) reviewed the available information concerning the complaint filed against you by [REDACTED] Rogers. This is the first step in deciding whether to institute a formal proceeding for discipline.

After thorough review and discussion, the Board found that the services you provided falls below the generally accepted standards of practice for professional counseling/psychotherapy and warrants formal disciplinary action. In the opinion of the Board, there are reasonable grounds to believe you failed to meet the generally accepted standards of practice and violated CRS 12-43-218 and CRS 12-43-704(1)(g). Specifically, the Board determined that:

You violated client confidentiality by disclosing information about the husband without obtaining a release from the husband.

The Board strongly encourages you to review your professional code of ethics and the mental health licensing statute.

By this letter and pursuant to CRS 12-43-704.5(3), the Board takes the formal disciplinary action of admonishing you for the conduct specified above.
